RIBBSTONE COUNCIL MEETING MINUTES

Regular meeting of the Council of the Municipal District of Ribstone No. 421, held at the Council Chamber, Chauvin on 1.30 o'clock Saturday, January 10th 1925.

All members present. Reeve Ferguson presiding.

Minutes of last preceding meeting were read and Councilor McCluskey moved that same be adopted as read. Carried.

The following accounts were presented and Clr. McCluskey moved that same be paid. Carried.

Chauvin Chronicle	$26.00
Mothers Allowance	25.00
J. Roe	3.75
and time sheets for Div 3	47.50

Letter was read from Mr. J. white, stating that the Councillor had promised him $10 per acre for the land taken for the road and referred to the minutes. The minutes were then referred to, but these appeared to show that the land had been promised free of all cost. The reason why Mr. Murray had been paid for his land was that he had made no promise—the promise having been made by another person having no authority. Secretary was instructed to notify Mr. white as to these facts.

Mr. J. Craddock attended, and stated that his boy, six years old, required to be placed in some institute, that he had interviewed the Medical Officer, and that Dr. Folkins recommended him to take the boy to the Clinic at Edmonton, and also to see the Provincial Medical Officer, with a view to having him sent to the Red Deer Training School. Mr. Craddock was not at present able to bear the expense, and asked the Council to advance the money as a loan. Clr. Tunney moved that the necessary expenses, and the fees of the Training School be paid by the Council, and that same be treated as a loan to Mr. Craddock. Carried.

Mr. Jeff Swan attended in regard to the taxation of his land on sec 18-44-1-w4th. This had been placed at over double the other land on same section, although the poorest land on the section. It appeared to be an error—and he wanted only what was equitable. As it appeared that an injustice had been done in this matter, Reeve Ferguson moved that the taxes for 1923 and 1924 be adjusted to the figures of the other land referred to but that the assessment be not interfered with and that Sec. the Edinglassie School District. Carried.

Clr. McCluskey moved that the meeting adjourn, and that the next meeting of the Council be held at Ribstone on Saturday the 21st day of February, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

The Tea Situation

Possibly the world's largest operator in TEA, in reviewing the Tea situation says in part:

“The Tea industry which a few years back was suffering depression is now experiencing boundless prosperity so far as the growers are concerned.

This is the result of continued increases in consumption throughout the world. Even so-called impoverished countries, such as Germany and Russia, are eagerly asking for Tea.

Production has fallen short of expectations, and due to the steadily increasing cost of labor in Northern India, is still the most difficult problem facing the planter.

Throughout the year high prices have ruled, and when it became apparent there would be no increase in production the market started on a strong upward course.

Compared with last season, in Northern India crops up to the end of October showed a deficit of six million pounds.

So far as human judgment can foresee the next few years will be full of prosperity for the producer Very small areas of New Tea will come into bearing and new planting will only be on a moderate scale and cannot augment supplies for five or six years.”

The above statements corroborate all the information we are receiving from various sources and it looks as though both merchant and consumer will have to abandon the idea of the old price level and re-adjust their ideas to the new scale of prices

RULES

GOVERNING SEED FAIR

1. All exhibitors must be members of the Chauvin Agricultural Society.

2. In the case of wheat, oats, barley and rye, the exhibitor must have for sale, or be retaining for seed on his own farm, at least 50 bushels of wheat, oats, barley and rye, 5 bushels of potatoes, 25 bushels of flax.

3. In classes 1 to 16 inclusive one bushel of seed shall be shown; in classes 17 to 18 one-half bushel. All exhibits of seed shall be held to be representative of the total quantity of such seed offered for sale by the exhibitor.

4. No premium shall be awarded on exhibits that contain impurities which, in the opinion of the judges, are of noxious nature.

5. No exhibitor is allowed to make more than one entry in each class of Seed Grains and Potatoes.

6. All samples of seed must be labelled, after judging, with the name and address of the exhibitor, the name of the variety, the amount of seed for sale, and the selling price.

7. The committee in conjunction with the judges reserve the right to debar any exhibit on which, in their judgement, a prohibitive price is placed.

8. Any exhibitor making entry un-

Teacher: "And if you had $555 and multiplied it by two, what would you get?"

Small Pupil: "A car!"

"I'm improving, in drawing,
mother... said the little girl.

"Are you, dear? That's good"

"Yes. I drew a cake and Ben guessed it was an oyster. He knew it was something to eat.

"My wife always kisses me when she wants some money."

"Well, she certainly earns all she gets."

She: "You should get your temper insured."

He: "Why?"

"It's so fiery."

"Tom's wife has gone home to live with her mother."

"Separated so soon?"

"Oh, no, he's gone with her."

DO YOU WANT FEED?
Those requiring feed are reminded by G. G. Shantz, the Chauvin miller, that each bushel of wheat ground for flour yields about 20 lbs of feed. This solves two problems at once, better bring your grain in for grinding without further delay.

Those who start saving to-morrow get rich to-morrow.
Remember—it takes two to make a friendship.

In the seventeenth century, a man who failed to attend church was guilty of a punishable offence.

A tip to those who contemplate installing a radio this season. place your order at once, because deliveries are hard to obtain, the demand being so keen. Buy from one who understands construction and can assist you in any of the problems that may arise. Its to your advantage. L. D'Albertanson, Jr., at Chauvin Chronicle office.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The licensing habit is becoming chronic. The other day, Whilst in one of the local stores, we counted no less than five different licenses on display. With the additional licenses necessary for running a car, having a dog, using a radio, and for shooting a few prairie chickens, the problems of living become harder every day. On top of this our local M.L.A. would inflict an income tax. Guess he will have to make some speed, or there will be no income left to tax.

Things move round in a circle. Sooner or later a fellow finds that what he wants from the other fellow, he has to give in his turn. An instance of this is to be found in the requirements of the law controlling the seed of seed grain. For the farmer's protection it was enacted that those selling seed grain were obligated to furnish a certificate of germination. This obligation is also imposed on the farmer who sells seed grain to his neighbors.

How about last year's oats for seed? It is a rather uncertain proposition. In any case whether you intend to sell seed oats or not, you will be well advised to obtain an official test of germination. This can be obtained, without charge prior to February 1st. at the Dominion Seed Branch Calgary. Don't leave it until too late.

Whilst talking of seed oats, we notice that the Chauvin Agricultural Society have added two classes for oats in the list of These are for oats grown in 1923. This has been done to afford opportunity for those having, and those desiring, to get together and trade in seed oats. In doing this they are killing two birds with one stone, or in other words, they are encouraging local trading and facilitating the supply of good seed oats and a subsequent more certain crop.

That it pays to advertise, was proved in a negative sort of ago. Scant attention had been given to publicity. By request the editor had given a free reader announcing this speech, but little had give a free reader announcing this speech, but little else was else was done. The result being that the number present was altogether unworthy of the occasion.

While we may not agree with all his viewpoints the fact remains that H. E. Spencer has proved a good hard worker, is very conscientious, and has put in more parliamentary effort than his predecessors. Thus he was worthy of a better hearing.

It is true that the local organizers have saved a few dollars by not advertising the meeting. But this is at once a poor compliment to their parliamentary representatives; and at the same time is a "pennywise and pound-foolish" policy. Public opinion, at the best, is strangely liable to change, The U.F.A. federal organizers still have a most valuable goodwill in the approbation of the electorate, but they cannot, with safety to their cause, relax a single effort to maintain that goodwill. Too often the price of such neglect proves disastrous, in politics as well as in business

It was our privilege to "listen in" to an argument in a local store the other day upon the merits of wages earning as against farming. One party to the argument was a local farmer who had been out on wages (and good wages at that) and another who had farmed, been in business locally and also been out "on wages". The end of the argument showed that one was better off on the farm than he was "on wages".

"It's getting drearier driving across the country these days, there are so many vacant farms, and so many farms are getting into bad shape from being in the hands of renters," said a visitor to our office the other day. When we inquired whether this district had lost more farmers than others, supposed richer districts, he required quite definitely "No, there are just as many, or more, leaving those districts."

The district is not "on the bum". True there are adverse conditions to face but there are by no means confined to this locality. They are general. They are not confined to the farming industry. They will be overcome in due course. Don't be like the dog in the fable who dropped, and lost, the piece of meat he had for the reflection he saw in the water.

THE QUIET HOUR

By the Editor

"Come ye yourselves apart .... and rest awhile"

Yes, we have often heard these familiar old words before and have we not disregarded them because they appeared to us partly as an invitation to take things easy and partly as an excuse to evade the task upon which we were engaged—that all-important task that we "simply must do."

Whilst fully recognizing the graciousness of the invitation, have we not failed to perceive that this is no less than a command? It is a duty we are called upon to perform. A pleasant duty, and a duty which brings an inestimable reward in its performance. Their labors were of the most beneficial nature to humanity and included the healing of the throngs of sick folk that were brought for cure. From the urgency of such work they were called to rest. May not we, whose tasks and duties are not of such all important nature take time to obey this command?

Rest is not idleness. Rest is refreshment and renewal. It is a deliberate stopping of expenditure of energy. A time when we, like the electric battery, may be recharged with power and energy. Rest, far from being a waste of time, saves time; since by the frequent well directed and concentrated action we may accomplish more than was possible without such rest.

The place apart may be any where that we may be assured quietness. It is the withdrawal of our real selves from the thronging duties, pleasures, cares, anxieties, hopes and fears—in other words, the burden of the day.. It is the place undisturbed, where the still small voice of Infinite Wisdom can speak to us; and where we can hear Him. It is the place where the Heavenly Father whispers to His earthly child. It is the place where divine harmony may enter our souls and dispell all the gloom, darkness and inharmony. It is the place where our spirits are re-charged with his power, wisdom and strength. It is the place where our thoughts are corrected, our desires purified, our vision clarified, and our whole being renewed.

"Come ye yourselves apart, and rest awhile,
Weary, I know it, of the press and throng;
Wipe from your brow the sweat and dust of toil,
And in My quiet strength again be strong."

THE STALWART HEART

Give me always a goal to try for;
Let me fight till my breath is spent;
Give me a dream to fight and die for
And I shall be content.

Keep for others your silken leisure,
Drowsy days in the shade or sun;
I was never a one to treasure
Rest till my work was done.

No, for sloth is the worst of sinning;
Give me the joy and the zest of the fray,
Finding my true reward in the winning,
Not in the prize or pay.

And, if victory be denied me,
I shall not shrink from another test,
Nor care at all if the fools deride me,
Knowing I did my best.

Somewhere still there are roads uncharted;
Somewhere still is an unfound Grail;
Let me go onward, valiant hearted,
To the end of the last, long trail.

Give me always a goal to try for;
Let me toil till my days be spent;
Give me a dream to fight and die for
Let me toil till my days be spent;

Garden of Eden—An Apple—A Canadian Ship

Above is photograph of tree designated by the British Government as "Tree of Knowledge."

An apple from the Garden of Eden arrived in Montreal this week aboard the Canadian Pacific steamship Melita. With it came the story of history repeated after six thousand years and a reprieve for sundry passengers who had been threatened with irons, trial in the admiralty courts and what not.

The apple came to Montreal with Robert J. Casey who was a passenger aboard the "Melita." Mr. Casey is a well-known member of the staff of the Chicago News and among the books of his authorship are "The Land of Haunted Castles" and "The Lost Kingdom of Burgundy." He was on the way home from a trip through Syria to Damascus and Bagdad taken for the purpose of gathering material for another book.

Mr. Casey said that the apple was one of a pair brought from Quernah the traditional site of the Garden of Paradise at the junction of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers in Mesopotamia. It was placed in a stateroom with Babylonian bricks and other relics from the cradle of the human race and did not figure in the log of the "Melita" until the ship had been four days out of Cherbourg. Then it disappeared.

The owner complained to Commander Clews. "I regret this unfortunate incident," said the Captain. "Of course you must have read the notice on the card as you came aboard. The company will not be responsible for apples and other valuables unless they are deposited with the purser. As it stands at present this looks like a matter for the appellate court. But of course we shall see what can be done about it."

Three women named Eve and a man named William Adamson from British Columbia were found on the passenger list and they fell under suspicion immediately. Attempts to establish alibis were as fruitless as they had been before Noah built the ark. Adamson admitted that he was the tenant of a cabin on the same deck as that occupied by the apple and he was summoned for an interview with the captain. He was a technical prisoner when the "Melita" reached Belle Isle and might have been landed in shackles at Quebec had it not been for an unexpected denouement. A room steward, penitent but brave appeared before the officers substituting for angels with flaming swords.

"If it's an apple you're looking for I think I can find it for you," he volunteered. "It looked like just an ordinary apple and what with the way the women passengers are always wanting things there was no way of telling about it — you know how it is. I had brought a dish of fruit into that cabin the morning all the fuss started and when I was taking out the dishes some time afterward it was only natural-like that I should have made a mistake. I picked up that apple....."

"And so it's lost," gasped the investigators.

"That's where you're wrong," declared the steward triumphantly. "It's found. As soon as I heard of the howl I traced that apple. I followed its trail back to the pantry and thence to the cold storage room. And this morning I discovered it. One of the chefs had been in just before me. But I was determined. I went right out after him..... And I found the apple..... It's in here....."

And with a magnificent air he lifted a napkin from a large pan of apple sauce.

Another apple, later found concealed in a locked trunk, will be presented to the Field Museum of Chicago. The tree from which the fruit was picked has recently been designated as the "Tree of Knowledge" by the British Government substantiating an Arab legend of long standing. The document authenticating the claims of Quernah as the site of Eden is a record of court martial, a copy of which was brought back with the apples.

The case in point was that of Thomas Rogers, a sergeant in the British Flying corps stationed in Iraq since the armistice. Rogers, climbing the tree to have his picture taken, broke off one of the branches and was arrested by the Arab police.

The verdict finds him "guilty of having broken a limb from the tree of knowledge in the Garden of Eden" and fixes his fine at "one month's pay," a lighter sentence than that visited upon his remote ancestor for a similar offence.

Children Keep House

In the nursery of the Canadian Pacific S.S. Montlaurier. You might be content to lay upon the decks, but the young ones must have something to keep them out of mischief—hence their own special recreation quarter.

Three Rivers, Quebec, Has New Station

Citizens of Three Rivers, Quebec, regard the recent inauguration of the new Canadian Pacific Railway Station as marking a new epoch in the life of their city inasmuch as it affords proof of the status already attained by Trois-Rivieres as an industrial centre and of the greater prominence it is expected to occupy in the future. The new station building is the most up-to-date and magnificent of its kind in eastern Canada. Of its construction cost, not less than $200,000 represents the amount of money spent in Three Rivers.

Some idea as to the way Three Rivers has developed may be gathered from a few remarks made by E. J. Hebert, first assistant general passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, in proposing a toast at the banquet that marked the official opening. "Until 1875 navigation was the only transportation facility," he said. "Then the Northern Railway was built between Quebec, Three Rivers and Montreal, but it was not until 1905 that industries began to appear. With the opening of the St. Maurice Valley Railway trade developed rapidly. The towns of Shawinigan Falls, Grand Mere, Cap-de-la-Madeleine, La Gabelle, small hamlets in 1905, have become important industrial centres, with populations respectively of 12,000, 7,500 and 3,000 people, while Three Rivers itself has over 30,000 population now and is still growing."

Life is what our thoughts make it.

IN MEMORIAM

McCluskey—In loving memory of Elizabeth McCluskey, beloved wife and mother who passed away January 18th 1924.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance

Just a memory fond and true;
Just a token of affection,
And a heartache just for you.
Do not ask us if we miss her,
Long to see her smiling face,
But in memory she is dearer
No one here can take her place.
